

Detailed Reading List

From Media and Culture by Campbell 8th edition

Lesson 1: Chapter 1 Introduction

Media Convergence in the Digital Era 9–11
Evolution of a New Mass Medium 11–12
Linear Model 12
Cultural Model 12; Stories 13
Power of Media in Everyday Life 14–15
(omit case study on page 16–17)
Surveying Cultural Landscape 18

Skyscraper 18–21
Culture as Map 21–23
Case Study: Sleeper Curve 24–25
Critiquing Media and Culture 29–8
Media Literacy & Critical Process 28–33
(omit case study on page 32–33)
Benefits of a Critical Perspective 33

Lesson 2 Chapter 14 Media Effects and Cultural Approaches to Research

Public Opinion 454–455
Social Psychology 455–456
Marketing Research 456–458
(skip case study on page 457)
Research on Media Effects 458
Early Theories 458–460
Conducting Media Effects Research 460–463

Contemporary Media Effects Theories 463–466
Evaluating Research on Media Effects 466
Cultural Approaches 466–467
Early Developments Cultural Studies 467
Cultural Studies 467–470
(skip case study on page 469)
Cultural Studies Theory 470–471
Evaluating Cultural Studies Research 471–472

Lesson 3 Chapter 10 Advertising

Introduction 321
Early Developments 322
The First Agencies 323; Ads in 1800s 323–325
Promoting Social Change, Values 326–327
Shape of Advertising Today 327
Influence of Visual Design 327
Types of Advertising Agencies 328–329
Structure of Ad Agencies 330–334
VALS chart 331
Trends in Internet Adverts 334–336

Persuasive Techniques 336
Conventional Persuasive Strategies 337–338
Association Principle 338–340
Case Study: Stereotyping 339
Advertising as Myth 340
Product Placement 341
Brand Integration 342
Commercial Speech 343
Critical Issues: Children, Schools 344–345

Lecture 4 Chapter 11 Public Relations

Introduction 357–359
Early Developments in PR 360
P.T. Barnum & Buffalo Bill 360–362
Big Business & Press Agents 362
Birth of Modern PR 362–365
Practice of Public Relations 365
Approaches to Organized PR 366–367
Performing PR 367–375

Case Study: Video News Releases 370
Case Study: What Does it Mean to be Green? 374
PR Adapts to the Internet 375–376
PR During a Crisis 376–377
Tensions between PR and the Press 378
Elements of Professional Friction 378–380
Shaping the Image of PR 380

Lecture 5 Chapter 8 Magazines

Introduction 255–257
Development Modern US Magazines 261–262
Social Reform and the Muckrakers 262–263
Rise of General-Interest Magazines 263–267
Case Study: Photojournalism 264–265
Fall of General-Interest Magazines 267–270
Convergence 270–271
Domination of Specialization 271–273

Case Study: Touch Magazines 272
Men's & Women's Magazines 273
Sports, Entertainment, Leisure 273–275
Magazines for the Ages 275; Elite 275–276
Minority 276–278; Supermarket Tabloid 278
Organization and Economics 278
Departments and Duties 279–281
Major Magazine Chains 281–282

Lecture 6 Chapter 9 Books

Introduction 287–290
Birth of Publishing in the US 293–294
Formation of the Publishing Houses 294
Types of Books 295–302
Case Study: Comic Books 298–299
Trends and Issues in Publishing 327
Influences of TV and Film 302–303
Audio books 303; Convergence 303–304
Preserving & Digitizing 304–306

Case Study: Socializing Reading 305
Organization/Ownership of Book Industry 307
Ownership Patterns 308–32
Structure of Book Publishing 309–310
Selling Books: Stores, Clubs, Mail Order 310–313
Alternative Voices 313; Books and the Future of Democracy 314–315

Lesson 7 Chapter 5 Television

Controlling Content 149–151
Cable Threatens Broadcasting 153
Cable Services 153–155 (skip case study on 154)
TV Entertainment 156–160; Reality TV 162–164
Technology and Third Screens 169
Home Video 169–171; Convergence 171

Case Study: Online Streaming 170
Fourth Screen 172;
Economics & Ownership 172
Production 172–174;
Distribution 174–175
Syndication 175–176;
Measuring Viewing 176–178

Lesson 8 Chapter 3 Popular Music

Development of Sound Recording 73
From Cylinders to Disks 74–76
From Phonographs to CDs 76–77
Convergence 77–80
Case study: Downloading 79
Rocky Relationship, Records & Radio 80–81
Rise of Pop 81–82; Rock and Roll 82–83
Rock Muddies the Waters 83–86
Battles in Rock and Roll 86–88

British Invasion 88–90; Motor City 90–91
Folk and Psychedelic Rock 91–92
Punk, Grunge, Alternative 92–93; Hip-hop 93–95
Reemergence of Pop 95
Business of Sound Recording 95
Music Labels Influence the Industry 95–96
Making, Selling, Profiting from Music 96–101
(omit case study on page 100)
Alternative Voices (Indie & Internet) 101–102
Democracy 103

Lesson 9 Chapter 6 Movies

Rise of Hollywood Studio System 192
Production 193; Distribution 193–194
Exhibition 194–195
Development of Hollywood Style 197–199
(skip case study on 200)
Documentary Tradition 202
(skip case study on 203)
Paramount Decision 206
Moving to the Suburbs 207

Television Changes Hollywood 207–208
Hollywood Adapts 208
Economics of the Movie Business 209
Production, Distribution, Exhibition 209–212
Major Studio Players 212–213
Convergence 213–214
Alternative Voices 214–215
Democracy 215

Lesson 10 Chapter 2 Digital Media

Birth of Internet 40–41
Net Widens 42; Web 1.0 43
Commercial Structure of Web 43–45
Web 2.0 45
Instant Messaging, Blogs, Wikis, Social Media Sites 46–48
Media Convergence 48–50
Web 3.0 50; Next Era 50 (skip case study on 51)

Gaming 52–56
Dividing up the Web 56–59
Advertising 58–60
Security, Appropriateness, Access 60–65 (skip case study on 62)
Alternative Voices 65–66
Internet and Democracy 66–67

Lesson 11 Chapters 7 News + 13 Journalism

Ch 7: Partisan Press 222–224
Penny Press 224–225
Yellow Journalism 225–227
Competing Models Print Journalism 257
Objectivity 228–229
Interpretive Journalism 230–231
Literary Journalism 231–232
Contemporary Journalism 232–233
Business and Ownership 234
Consensus vs. Conflict 234–235
Readership Declines 243–244
Going Local 244–245; Convergence 245–247 (skip case study on 246) Blogs 247–248
New Models 248–248
Alternative Voices 249–250

Ch 13:
What is News? 419
News Values 421–423
Balancing Story Conflict 434
Adversaries 434
Differences between Print and TV News 435–437
Convergence 438
Visual Language 438–439
Fake News 443–444